THE ITINERARY

DAY 1

DAY 01

Kraków - Wawel Castle and Main Market Square

01

Begin your journey in the historic city of Kraków, where you'll explore the magnificent Wawel Castle, a symbol of Polish national identity. Take in the stunning architecture and rich history of this royal residence, which has witnessed centuries of Polish heritage. Afterward, immerse yourself in the vibrant atmosphere of the Main Market Square, one of the largest medieval town squares in Europe. Stroll through the bustling streets lined with shops and cafes, and don't miss the chance to hear the hourly trumpet call from St. Mary's Basilica, a Gothic masterpiece known for its impressive altarpiece. Enjoy your evening in one of the many delightful restaurants in the area, tasting local Polish cuisine.

DAY 2

DAY 02

Kraków - Auschwitz-Birkenau Memorial and Museum

02

On your second day, take a solemn but essential trip to the Auschwitz-Birkenau Memorial and Museum, located about an hour from Kraków. This UNESCO World Heritage site is a poignant reminder of the Holocaust and human rights atrocities. As you walk through the preserved barracks and exhibits, you'll gain a deeper understanding of the history and impact of World War II. The site is a powerful place for reflection, honoring the memory of those who suffered. After your visit, return to Kraków and spend some time exploring the local Jewish Quarter, Kazimierz, known for its rich history and vibrant culture, with plenty of cafes and shops to discover.

DAY 3

DAY 03

Kraków - St. Mary’s Basilica and Jasna Góra Monastery

03

On your third day in Kraków, visit the iconic St. Mary’s Basilica, famous for its stunning Gothic architecture and the remarkable wooden altarpiece carved by Veit Stoss. Don't miss the hourly trumpet call from the tower, a tradition that dates back to the Middle Ages. After soaking in the beauty of the basilica, take a day trip to the Jasna Góra Monastery in Częstochowa, one of Poland's most important pilgrimage sites. Home to the revered Black Madonna icon, the monastery attracts millions of visitors each year. Explore the monastery grounds, attend a mass if you wish, and appreciate the spiritual significance of this sacred site before returning to Kraków for the night.

DAY 4

DAY 04

Wieliczka Salt Mine

04

Today, venture to the Wieliczka Salt Mine, another UNESCO World Heritage site located just outside Kraków. This incredible underground world features stunning chapels and intricate carvings all made from salt, showcasing the artistry and history of salt mining in Poland. As you descend into the mine, you will be amazed by the surreal beauty of the salt sculptures and the serene underground lakes. A guided tour will provide insights into the mine's history and the miners' lives. After exploring the mine, return to Kraków and take the rest of the day to relax or perhaps enjoy a leisurely walk along the Vistula River, soaking in the beautiful views of the city.

DAY 5

DAY 05

Gdańsk - Old Town Exploration

05

Travel to Gdańsk, a city renowned for its rich history and stunning architecture. Begin your exploration in the Old Town, where you'll find beautifully reconstructed buildings that showcase Hanseatic architecture. Visit the iconic Neptune Fountain and the impressive Gdańsk Crane, a symbol of the city's maritime history. Take a leisurely stroll along the Long Market, lined with colorful facades, shops, and cafes. Don't forget to visit St. Mary's Church, one of the largest brick churches in Europe, which offers a panoramic view from its tower. In the evening, enjoy a local seafood dinner at one of the many restaurants along the waterfront, soaking in the lively atmosphere of this vibrant city.

DAY 6

DAY 06

Gdańsk - Cultural and Historical Insights

06

On your second day in Gdańsk, delve deeper into the city's cultural and historical offerings. Visit the European Solidarity Centre, which commemorates the Solidarity movement and the fight for freedom in Poland. Afterward, take a walk along the Motława River and explore the historic shipyard area. Visit the Museum of the Second World War, which offers a comprehensive insight into the war's impact on Poland and the world. This museum is known for its engaging exhibits and immersive storytelling. In the evening, relax at one of the local cafes or bars, enjoying the lively ambiance and perhaps trying some local craft beer or vodka before resting for the night.

DAY 7

DAY 07

Warsaw - The Royal Route

07

Travel to Warsaw, the vibrant capital of Poland. Begin your exploration along the Royal Route, a historic pathway that takes you through some of the city's most significant landmarks. Start at the Royal Castle and make your way to the beautiful Łazienki Park, home to the famous Chopin Monument and the Palace on the Isle. Enjoy a leisurely walk through the park, taking in the natural beauty and cultural significance. Continue your journey to the Old Town, which has been meticulously rebuilt and is a UNESCO World Heritage site. Spend time exploring the charming streets, shops, and cafes, and indulge in traditional Polish dishes at a local restaurant for dinner.

DAY 8

DAY 08

Warsaw - Warsaw Uprising Museum

08

On your second day in Warsaw, visit the Warsaw Uprising Museum, a must-see for anyone interested in the city's tumultuous history during World War II. The museum offers interactive exhibits and powerful displays that narrate the story of the 1944 uprising against Nazi occupation. Engaging and educational, this museum provides a deeper insight into the resilience and bravery of the Polish people. After your visit, take some time to explore the surrounding area and perhaps relax in one of the nearby parks. In the evening, enjoy a dinner at a traditional Polish restaurant, reflecting on your journey through this incredible country.

DAY 9

DAY 09

The Tatra Mountains - Nature and Adventure

09

Conclude your Polish adventure with a trip to the breathtaking Tatra Mountains. Known for their stunning natural beauty, the Tatras offer a range of outdoor activities including hiking, skiing, and scenic views. Depending on the season, choose a hiking trail that suits your fitness level and enjoy the fresh mountain air. Take in the spectacular landscapes, including crystal-clear lakes and towering peaks. If you're visiting in winter, consider skiing at one of the many resorts in the area. Spend your final evening in a cozy mountain lodge, reflecting on your journey and the memories made in Poland, before returning to your starting point.
